Great news for the area – Irish in the Community 2011-2013

Glór Uachtar Tíre; Castlewellan and the surrounding area, have been awarded a grant of £140,000 to roll out a programme of activities over the forthcoming three years. Glór Uachtar Tire is a voluntary, local group which was established in 1994 to promote Irish language in the area.

Glór Uachtar Tíre have developed a lively and exciting programme to support Irish in the locality. The money will be spent on these events as well as providing for the post of an Irish Language Development Officer, an office and administrative resources etc.

Emer O'Hagan has been appointed to the post of Irish Language Development Officer. She commenced at the start of February and she has an office in the Lodge, Castlewellan, Room 8. Call in or contact her on 028 437 70331. She is always looking for new ideas!

Ainm Úr

Tugadh Glór na nGael Uachtar Tíre ar an ghrúpa nuair a bunaíodh é i 1994.

Ba é ainm ársa é Uachtar Tíre le haghaidh na dúiche ó Sliabh Crúibe go Caisléan an Mhuilinn. Ach bhí Cruinniú Ginearálta Bliantúil (CGB) ag Glór na nGael Uachtar Tíre ar an 23ú Feabhra agus cinneadh ansin an t-ainm a ghearradh go Glór Uachtar Tíre.

Name Change

The group was named Glór na nGael Uachtar Tíre (The Voice of Irish Speakers in the Up-lands) when it was established in 1994. Uachtar Tíre was the old name for the area between Slieve Croob and Castlewellan.

However, Glór na nGael Uachtar Tíre had an Annual General Meeting (AGM) on February 23rd and it was agreed that the name should be shortened to Glór Uachtar Tíre (The Voice of the Up-lands).

Múinteoirí Gaeilge ar Iarraidh

Tá sé ar intinn ag Glór Uachtar Tíre tuilleadh ranganna Gaeilge a cur ar siúl. De bharr sin tá muid ar lorg múinteoirí Gaeilge. Má tá ardchaighdeán Gaeilge, idir labhartha agus scríofa agat agus má tá suim agat í a mhúineadh déan teaghmáil linn le do thoil ar 028 437 70331.
